

Celebration of Children's Day by IEDS-IUD – November 14, 2017

Students of ICFAI Education School, The ICFAI University, Dehradun celebrated Children's day on 14th November 2017 (Tuesday) with the students of Govt. Middle School, Telpura, Selaqui.

This day is celebrated as the birth Anniversary of Jawaharlal Nehru, one of the greatest National leaders who took part in India's freedom struggle. This day is a day of fun and frolic for children. Various games and activities are organized for children at school. Children are given sweets and candies to mark the celebration of this special occasion. Thus the celebration on this day is set aside to remember Pandit Nehru and his love for children.

Students of IEdS Batch (2017-19) shared the significance, legends of celebrating this day. Monika Devi, student of IEdS initiated with the speech. Nityanand Pandey highlighted few facts on the life of Pt. Jawaharlal Lal Nehru followed by Ekta Chauhan who made students performed a skit. Nityanand Pandey told students the reason behind naming Jawaharlal Lal as 'Pandit'. He made students recite a poem. Students seemed to be very happy and motivated. Students participated in Skit, poem recitation, singing etc organized by IEdS students. Ms. Atulya Verma appreciated students' efforts in presenting what they have learnt so far. Then, IEdS students offered candies and biscuits to the students. The School management thanked IEdS students for making their students' day special.

Students of B.Ed Batch (2016-18) celebrated the day in their respective schools in which they are doing their Teacher Internship Program. Cecily Anthony organized a communication game for students in St. Paul School, Vikasnagar, Dehradun.
