

NATIONAL UNITY DAY – October 31, 2017

ICFAI Education School, The ICFAI University, Dehradun celebrates National Unity Day on 31st October 2017 (Tuesday) in the form of collage making, Poster making, Slogan writing and presenting Seminar.

This day is observed as “Rashtriya Ekta Diwas” or “National Integration Day” in honor of great Indian Leader’s contribution and Birth Anniversary of country’s first Home Minister Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel for his commendable efforts in uniting India. He is known to be Architect of the Unified India. He oversaw the merger of several small states into the Indian Union. Regionalism turned to Nationalism as he asked people to think big and be strong. He led the task of shaping a united India by successfully integrating approximately 565 self-governing princely states into the newly independent nation which had been released from British control by the Indian Independence Act of 1947. He earned the title of “Iron Man” because of both mental and physical hard work and intelligence that carried throughout his life.

Nityanand Pandey, student of IEdS presented a Seminar on “National Unity Day” highlighting the significance of celebrating the National Unity day. His presentation included informative text, images and slogans etc. Mainksha Lama and Reena Mishra prepared a collage on the theme “Unity in Diversity” reflecting Peace and Unity as the strong pillars of a country. Chart prepared by Cecily Anthony and Monika Devi picturized unity among people belonging to different religion, region, caste, creed etc. Slogan writing was done by Shubham Kapoor and Tenzin Jigme. Prof. Sarita Negi told an incidence of Sardar Vallabh Bhai Patel related to his barrister life.

Oath was taken by all students of B.Ed department regarding the Unity, Security and Integrity of the country. The program on “National Unity Day” was coordinated by Prof. Sarita Negi and assisted by Ms. Atulya Verma.

