

	BRIEF PROFILE	 <small>Recognised under Section 2(f) of UGC Act</small>
	Ms. Mansi Sharma Assistant Professor M.Pharm (Pharmacology)	Designation Assistant Professor, ICFAI School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, The ICFAI University, Dehradun

Academic Achievements

Ms. Mansi Sharma completed her Master of Pharmacy (Pharmacology) with distinction and was awarded the University Gold Medal for her academic excellence. She has maintained excellent academic performance throughout her academic career in both undergraduate and postgraduate studies.

Professional Experience

She is currently working as an Assistant Professor at The ICFAI University, Dehradun. She is actively involved in teaching, student mentoring, academic coordination and research activities. She has hands-on experience in pharmacology laboratory techniques, research methodology and academic project guidance.

Research Interests

Neurodegenerative disorders, Cancer research, Diabetes management, Drug discovery and development, Clinical pharmacology and experimental pharmacology.

Publications

Therapeutic Targeting of TREM2 Signaling in Alzheimer's Disease: Opportunities and Challenges, Journal of Drug Discovery and Therapeutics, 2025.

Technical Skills

HPLC, UV Spectrophotometry, Animal handling techniques, Behavioral pharmacology studies, Data analysis using GraphPad Prism, SPSS, ChemSketch and MS Excel.

Industry Exposure

Completed industrial training in Quality Control, Quality Assurance and Production at Uni Medicolabs, Dehradun. Also gained professional experience in pharmacy practice including prescription verification and patient counseling.

She is committed to academic excellence, research innovation and student-centered teaching in pharmaceutical sciences.