Dear Sir/Ma'am

We are delighted to confirm that the full access to the South Asia Archive is now active under INFLIBNET Center, via your below IP range for your esteemed library.

27.123.248.154 - 27.123.248.157Please visit: www.southasiaarchive.com to start using the South Asia Archive.

The South Asia Archive provides online access to millions of pages of rare primary and secondary sources from across the social sciences and humanities.

Benefits include:

- A wealth of interdisciplinary content - books, journals, film ephemera, census reports & more
- Powerful full-text search & keyword highlighting
- Online resources in both English & vernacular languages
- Documents catalogued by subject specialist editors, with expert commentaries
- Rare & unusual documents available from your desktop 24/7

Please Take a look at our online tutorials to help you navigate the Archive <http://www.southasiaarchive.com/Help/Help-Videos>.

A range of videos are available on topics including searching and filtering the archive content. Please note that downloads are now available on the full version of the site, and this functionality also allows full text searching of PDFs.

If you have any queries or issues with the archive, please don't hesitate to contact us.

Thanks &amp; regards

Tarun Kumar
